

Task A

Part A:

The class is part of the _____

The _____ is part of the zoo.

Your nose is part of your _____

The _____ is part of the family.

Your _____ are part of your feet.

Part B:

Think of your own part/whole sentences about one of these things: a wheel, a leg, a bedroom.

Part C:

Which is the biggest fraction?

The trunk as a fraction of an elephant.

A fingernail as a fraction of a human.

The fin as a fraction of a shark.

The wings as a fraction of a butterfly.

Task B

Part A:

Use each word twice: hand, finger, arm

Your nail is part of your _____

Your _____ is part of your _____

Your _____ is part of your _____

Your _____ is part of your body.

Part B:

Think of your own part/whole sentences about one of these things. Have large parts and small parts in your examples: a wheel, a leg, a bedroom.

Part C:

Order these fractions from smallest to largest:

The trunk as a fraction of an elephant.

A fingernail as a fraction of a human.

The fin as a fraction of a shark.

The wings as a fraction of a butterfly.

Example Answers

Task A Part A: school lion enclosure face baby toes

Task A Part B: A wheel is part of a bike, a tyre is part of a wheel.

Task A Part C: Wings as a fraction of a butterfly.

Task B Part A: Your nail is part of finger, your finger is part of your hand, your hand is part of your arm, your arm is part of your body.

Task B Part B: A spoke is a small part of a wheel, a tyre is a large part of a wheel.

Task B Part C: Smallest to largest: fingernail as a fraction of a human; fin as a fraction of a shark; trunk as a fraction of an elephant; wings as a fraction of a butterfly.