Whose Present?

Fred and Amy are twins. They were talking to their friends Zara and Tom about the presents they were given for Christmas, how they were wrapped and where their presents were put. Here is what we know:

One child was given a basketball.

The present wrapped in spotty paper was left on the sofa.

One of the boys was given a camera.

Fred's present was wrapped in stripy paper.

The present left on the kitchen table was not the Lego.

The present wrapped in gold paper was not given to one of the twins.

For each child, work out which present they were given, how it was wrapped and where it was put.

CHRISTMAS TASKS: Answers

Whose Present?

	Present	Wrapping Paper	Where
Fred	Skateboard	Stripy	Christmas tree
Amy	Lego	Spotty	Sofa
Zara	Basketball	Gold	Kitchen
Tom	Camera	Ribbon	Under Bed

Possible order to working out clues:

1. Fred has stripy paper.
2. Tom has ribbon and his present is under his bed (he is the only boy that could have the ribbon).
3. Zara has the gold paper (the only person left who is not a twin)
4. Amy must be the child with the spotty paper (the last wrapping paper left) and this present was on the sofa.
5. The twin whose present (a skateboard) was under the Christmas tree must therefore be Fred.
6. This leaves Tom as the boy who was given the camera.
7. The final place for a present is the kitchen for Zara. She does not get the Lego, so that must be Amy.
8. Zara gets the basketball.
