

I See Maths, The Children's Code

This document outlines how I See Maths Ltd meets the requirements of The Children's Code.

The website www.iseemaths.com is for use by adults, not children directly. There are no interactive features for children.

There is no external advertising on the website.

No personal data is collected from children. Adults can subscribe to the I See Maths Mailing List, run by Mailchimp. The personal data collected is a name and an email address. This data is not shared. Location services are disabled and security settings are high, held by 123 Reg.